The collection is co-curated by California gallerist Lisa Marie Pomares, whose interest in African art, love of Marcel Duchamp and Cuban heritage all contribute to her excellent eye for the avant garde.

She is recognized for mixing unconventional works by emerging talent with pieces by more established artists. Shop her curated selection online here.

"After every dark period, there comes a time to throw open our windows and doors and return to the brighter, more vibrant side of life. Galerie Perrie's Spring/Summer 2021 Collection does just that, introducing a wide array of new works and décor featuring strikingly warm colors, playful patterns and vivacious lines. These pieces, capturing the feelings of sunny summer days, glistening ocean waves and blossoming gardens, serve as constant reminders that life's rejuvenation and joys are always just around the proverbial corner. Here at Galerie Perrie, as we—like everyone else—begin closing a chapter that turned the world inside-out, we feel there's no better time to invite all the beauty outside in." – Gabé Hirschowitz, Founder
